

FOUNDATIONS OF RURAL LEADERSHIP

PART 1 • PUBLIC TRUST AND SCENE LEADERSHIP

Lead with confidence. Serve with trust.

An interactive, scenario-driven course for frontline officers, deputies, and troopers navigating the unique demands of rural policing.

- Build public trust under small-town pressures
- Take charge of scenes and anticipate consequences
- Strengthen peer accountability and ethical courage

FEBRUARY 11, 2027
8:00 a.m.–5:00 p.m. CST • 8-hour course

HAYS, KANSAS
Hays Police Department Training Room
1100 Fort St • Hays, KS 67601

REGISTRATION: $199

INSTRUCTOR: COLE PRESLEY

Designed for frontline personnel with 6–24 months of field experience.

REGISTER TODAY

Scan to register

cpsl@ku.edu | 620.694.1401

For disability accommodations, contact CPSL at least three weeks before the event.