

2-Presentations on the Active Shooter Problem

Presented by Ed Monk

Hosted by Ron Scheidt and Cody Blocker

Saturday, August 29th 8AM-4:30PM

Zion Church

5511 S 27th St

Topics Covered:

- Attacks at schools, churches, businesses, government facilities, and other locations
- Who the attacker is & weapons used
- Usual attack start locations
- The importance of TIME & MATH in planning a response
- Gear, mental preparation, skills and training
- Issues armed responders should expect to encounter

Who Should Attend:

- CCW Permit Holders
- Church Safety Volunteers & Church Employees
- School Administration & Parents of school-aged children
- University faculty, staff & College students
- School Security, Resource Officers, Law Enforcement & Emergency Responders

Scan this QR code to register

Ed Monk is a police officer, firearms trainer, author, former schoolteacher, and retired Army officer. He has researched and provided training on the Active Shooter threat since 2007. He has trained law enforcement agencies, schools, churches, businesses and armed citizens nationwide. He has been an invited speaker at many international, national, and state conferences across the country. In 2007, Ed retired from the Army as a lieutenant colonel and battalion commander after 24 years of active-duty in the US, Europe, and Iraq. He then taught high school and served as a deputy sheriff in Kentucky. He is author of the book, First 30 Seconds.