Provide your new supervisors with a strong foundation for success.

Northwestern | CENTER FOR PUBLIC SAFETY

Supervision of Police Personnel teaches essential supervisory and managerial skills for officers with little or no formal supervisory training. Our authoritative curriculum focuses on such critical topics as:

- Day-to-day work relationships with subordinates, superiors, and the public;
- Managing the leadership challenges that law enforcement supervisors frequently encounter;
- Understanding human behavior as it relates to law enforcement management;
- Mastering communications techniques; and,
- Much more!

Students complete this two-week course with the understanding that knowing what action to take — and how to implement that action — can be the difference between success or failure on the street or in the office.

Northwestern University Center for Public Safety provides the highest caliber education available for law enforcement
