

Policing the Teen Brain™ Training

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Law Enforcement Officers who:

- Recognize that avoiding escalation with youth will improve officer safety
- Are looking for insight into teen behavior, mental health, and cultural challenges
- Are interested in improving their interactions with youth

TRAINING GOALS

You will learn best practices for policing youth including:

- Reducing conflict & increasing officer safety
- Avoiding escalation of interactions with youth
- Demonstrating good communication approaches
- Using developmental competence to work with teens

WHEN

July 16–17, 2024
8:00 AM to 4:00 PM each day

WHERE

Columbus Police Department
2330 14 Street
Columbus NE 68601

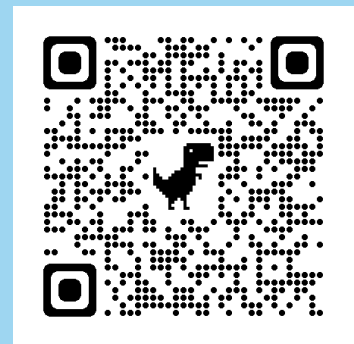

PARKING:

Street Parking & Public Parking Lots

COST: FREE

REGISTER

To register, scan QR code or click here!

QUESTIONS?

Contact:

Capt. Douglas M. Molczyk
douglas.molczyk@columbusne.us

SPONSORED BY

Strategies for Youth

P.O. Box 390174, Cambridge, MA 02139
617.714.3789 strategiesforyouth.org