This relevant and timely training will provide law enforcement officers with an introductory overview of numerous domestic terror groups and criminally subversive subcultures encountered by law enforcement professionals on a daily basis. The course will provide a definition of violent extremism and focus on identifying individuals and groups that attempt to advance social or political beliefs through force or violence.

Law enforcement professionals will be educated on the First Amendment and the Constitutional protections afforded to all groups and actions discussed. At the conclusion of the course, law enforcement professionals will be trained to identify racially and ideologically motivated behavior and discern between criminal activity and First Amendment protected speech and actions.

Subjects and Ideologies to be Covered:

- Anarchist/Antifa
- White Supremacy/White Nationalism/National Socialism
- INCEL Movement/Anti-Feminist Groups
- Proud Boys
- The Base/Atomwaffen/The Green Brigade/Eco-Fascism
- Boogaloo Movement/III%
- Black Militia/NFAC
- Animal Rights Issues
- Eco-Terrorism
- Social Media Usage for Recruitment and Propaganda

NEW All classes will include an update and overview on the impact of issues such as COVID-19, civil unrest, U.S. Capitol events, and the current posture of threat actors with anti-law enforcement beliefs.

At the conclusion of training, attendees will be able to:

- Identify racially motivated violent extremism and associated ideologies.
- Recognize and understand the numerous criminal subcultures and extremist groups living and operating in their jurisdiction.
- Understand and predict the dynamics of encounters with the various criminal subcultures presented.
- Complete safe, competent and thorough investigations involving criminally subversive groups and/or racially motivated individuals.
- Define, explain, and train fellow officers on the recruitment tactics and social media platforms most commonly used by the groups discussed.
