Reparation (CRV) claims

Assisting victims with registration for VINE.

Direct Victim Assistance Fund

Guidelines and needs considered by the fund are:

- Relocation (can include up to 3 months' rent, deposit, storage & moving expenses.) Limit one occurrence per victim/family
- Window | Door | Lock replacement or repair & other repairs necessary to ensure victim safety. Limit one occurrence per victim/family
- Emergency Food | Transportation | Clothing | Shelter. Up to 5 nights per victim/family
- Transportation | Meals | Lodging to participate in Criminal Justice Process (not as a witness). Up to 5 nights per victim/family
- Other well-justified needs, case by case basis

The Direct Victim Assistance Fund requires invoices from the service provider, not the advocacy program.

The Victim Assistance Fund is unable to cover any expenses that are incurred due to being a witness, or a victim who becomes a witness, in the Criminal Justice System.
