available for each lock, and the location of the locks are properly recorded. The issuance of keys to employees is documented.
6-005.02B Keys not issued to employees are stored in a manner that permits easy determination of the presence or absence of keys.	X
6-005.02C Fire and other emergency keys are readily accessible to the central control area to the designated employees on duty.	X
6-005.02D The loss or misplacement of jail keys is immediately reported to the administrator.	X
6-005.02E Keys must be inventoried and logged once per shift.	X			Keys are inventoried each shift and documented on the cell check log.
6-005.03 Restraint equipment is used only as a precaution against escape during transfer or as prevention against inmate self-injury, injury to others or damage to property. Restraint equipment is applied only for the time absolutely necessary. The use of restraint equipment, other than for routine use during transfer, is approved by the supervisor on-duty and must be documented in report. Restraint equipment shall be inventoried at regular and routine ongoing intervals.	X			The facility maintains no restraints. Restraints are maintained by the deputies and sheriff.
6-005.04 The facility shall have a tool control system, which includes the following provisions: All facility owned tools and other potentially dangerous equipment are securely stored in a locked area or outside the security perimeter. There is an accounting system to record the issuance and return of all facility owned tools and equipment. Facility employees carefully monitor the use of tools and equipment by maintenance and repair workers within the security perimeter to ensure none are left unattended, lost, or forgotten. Tools and equipment are used by inmates within security perimeter only under the direct supervision of facility employees. The loss or misplacement of tools or equipment is promptly reported to the facility administrator.	X			The facility does not maintain any tools or potentially dangerous equipment. Staff always accompany maintenance or contractors when working in the facility.
6-006 The jail's policies and procedures for pat searches, strip searches, and body cavity searches are consistent with Standards 6-006.01 through 6-006.04C4.	X			Procedures for pat and body cavity searches are consistent with these requirements.
6-006.05 The facility has a facility search plan for the control of contraband which provides for unannounced and irregularly timed searches of cells, dayrooms and activity, work or other areas accessible to inmates.	X

CHAPTER 9 - MAIL, VISITING & TELEPHONE SERVICE
9-002.01	The length, source, or volume of mail an inmate may send or receive at his/her own expense, shall not be limited, except where there is clear and convincing evidence to justify the limitation for reasons of public safety, facility order, or security. Any restriction of mail will be documented.
9-002.02	Inmates are allowed to send or receive mail from any persons or organizations, except where there is clear and convincing evidence that justifies a restriction.			This is specified in section E-300 of the facility's SOP manual.
9-002.03-002.03C	Inmates are allowed to send sealed, confidential mail to the following: their legal counsel, courts, elected officials, members of the confining authority, the State Ombudsman, and the Board. Incoming confidential mail from these persons or organizations is opened only in the presence of the inmate recipient. Confidential mail is not read. Delivery of confidential mail shall be documented. It may be inspected for contraband, money, etc.
9-002.04A	Cash, checks or money orders are removed from incoming mail and promptly credited to the inmate's account. Checks or money order received in incoming mail may be cashed and credited to the inmate's account.			Funds received through the mail are added to the inmate's account.
9-002.04B	If contraband is discovered in either incoming or outgoing mail, it is removed, with that action and disposition being properly documented.
9-002.04C	No disciplinary action is taken against an inmate because of the contents of his incoming mail unless it can be proven that he had prior knowledge of the contents.
9-002.05	Incoming or outgoing non-confidential mail may be perused to assure that a particular item or correspondence does not threaten the safety and security of the jail facility, any public official, any other person, or is being used in the furtherance of illegal activities.
9-002.05A	Objectionable portions of incoming or outgoing mail is not blacked out, removed, or otherwise changed. Correspondence is delivered unaltered or totally rejected.
9-002.05B	Rejected correspondence is returned to the sender or placed with the inmate's personal property. The sender is notified as to the reasons for the rejection and the action properly documented.			Rejected mail is placed in the inmate's property.
9-002.06	Indigent inmates receive sufficient materials and postage for a reasonable amount of correspondence.			Indigent inmates receive postage for three letters per week.
9-002.07	Mail is delivered within twenty-four hours, excluding weekends and holidays.
9-002.08	The facility administrator may require books or

9-003.01A	X			Clergy providing religious counseling, physicians, probation/parole officers, and mental health and addiction therapists are allowed to visit at any reasonable time for any reasonable length of time. Visits between inmates and visitors of the types identified herein are contact visits unless the inmate or visitor indicate otherwise or unless the jail administrator has reasonable grounds to believe a contact visit would present a threat to jail security. If a contact visit is denied on the basis of a threat to jail security, the reason is documented.
9-003.01B	X			Attorneys or their legal assistants are allowed to visit their clients at any reasonable time for any reasonable length of time. However, in the event of an emergency, then they are allowed to visit their clients at any time. Unless otherwise indicated by the inmate or the visitor, all attorney-client visits are contact visits.
9-003.01C	X			Contact visits between inmates and their attorneys or the attorneys' legal assistants, clergy, physicians, probation/parole officers, mental health and addition therapists are in a private area or room so as to allow for confidential communication among up to 4 people with adequate writing space. No physical barriers such as wire mesh, glazed barriers, or other physical obstructions are placed between inmates and any of the above specified visitors during contact visits. Such visits are not monitored, except that employees may visually observe the visitation through glazed observation panels or by means of closed circuit television as necessary to maintain appropriate levels of security.
9-003.01D			X	In all holding facilities, inmates are allowed personal visits at the discretion of the jail administrator.
9-003.02	X			Each inmate is allowed at least 2 personal visits per week. (Type III jails).
9-003.02A	X			No restrictions are placed on who may visit an inmate except that any person other than the inmate's spouse who is under the age of 18 may be denied visitation unless accompanied by their parent or guardian and any person who the jail administrator has reasonable grounds to believe presents a threat to jail security or order may be denied visitation.
9-003.02B	X			Inmates are allowed at least 2 hours of visiting time each week in 2 or more visits. Visits are not limited to less than ½ hour.
9-003.02C	X			Enough hours are set aside weekly to fulfill the visiting requirements of all inmates housed in the jail.
