CHAPTER 1 – STANDARDS FOR JAIL FACILITIES
1-0010	The jail administrator has developed and implemented written policies and procedures covering all aspects of Nebraska Minimum Standards.	X			The jail policy and procedures manual was signed by Sheriff Jenson and placed into service in 2011. Policy is currently being revised and PREA is being addressed.
CHAPTER 2 – PERSONNEL
2-002	The facility has an organized training program that is planned and coordinated by a designated employee. Training is based on, and consistent with, the facility's written policies and procedures.	X
2-003	The facility administrator and employees who work in excess of 200 hours annually and are responsible for the security and supervision of inmates meet the following training requirements:	X			The new employee orientation is part of the FTO training program.
2-003.01A	Inmate supervision, inmate security, inmate management and inmate rules, regulations and enforcement procedures;	X
2-003.01B	Emergency procedures including fire evacuation;	X
2-003.01C	Inmate admission, orientation, classification and release procedures;	X
2-003.01D	Inmate mail, telephone, visiting, exercise, recreation, and library services;	X
2-003.01E	Food service, inmate hygiene and laundry, facility sanitation and maintenance;	X
2-003.01F	Inmate work release, educational release, religious and counseling programs;	X
2-003.01G	Inmate medical and mental health services;	X
2-003.02	Required staff have received a minimum of eighty (80) hours of initial training provided by the Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center or an equivalent curriculum approved by the Board.	X			Two newly hired employees will need to complete initial training by Feb. 2016.
2-003.04	Newly appointed facility administrators and employees have completed the initial training within the first year of employment.	X
2-003.06	Any facility administrator or employee who has not been employed in a corrections or detention setting for more than two years shall have their prior initial training completion honored, but they must complete a refresher course approved by the Board. Any facility administrator or employee who has not been employed in a corrections or detention setting for more than ten years shall complete the initial training requirements anew.			X
2-003.07	After the first year of employment, the administrator and employees have received a minimum of 18 hours of yearly in-service training.	X			All staff have between 18-28 hours of annual in-service training.

6-005.02B Keys not issued to employees are stored in a manner that permits easy determination of the presence or absence of keys.	X
6-005.02C Fire and other emergency keys are readily accessible to the central control area to the designated employees on duty.	X
6-005.02D The loss or misplacement of jail keys is immediately reported to the administrator.	X
6-005.02E Keys must be inventoried and logged once per shift.	X			Keys are inventoried on each shift and logged.
6-005.03 Restraint equipment is used only as a precaution against escape during transfer or as prevention against inmate self-injury, injury to others or damage to property. Restraint equipment is applied only for the time absolutely necessary. The use of restraint equipment, other than for routine use during transfer, is approved by the supervisor on-duty and must be documented in report. Restraint equipment shall be inventoried at regular and routine ongoing intervals.	X			The restraint inventory is logged on the alarm checklist.
6-005.04 The facility shall have a tool control system, which includes the following provisions: All facility owned tools and other potentially dangerous equipment are securely stored in a locked area or outside the security perimeter. There is an accounting system to record the issuance and return of all facility owned tools and equipment. Facility employees carefully monitor the use of tools and equipment by maintenance and repair workers within the security perimeter to ensure none are left unattended, lost, or forgotten. Tools and equipment are used by inmates within security perimeter only under the direct supervision of facility employees. The loss or misplacement of tools or equipment is promptly reported to the facility administrator.	X			No tools are secured within the jail perimeter. Staff members always escort maintenance and contractors.
6-006 The jail's policies and procedures for pat searches, strip searches, and body cavity searches are consistent with Standards 6-006.01 through 6-006.04C4.	X			Pat and body cavity searches policies and procedures are consistent with these requirements.
6-006.05 The facility has a facility search plan for the control of contraband which provides for unannounced and irregularly timed searches of cells, dayrooms and activity, work or other areas accessible to inmates.	X
