| 6-005.02C Fire and other emergency keys are readily accessible to the central control area to the designated employees on duty.  | X                 |     |     |   |
| 6-005.02D The loss or misplacement of jail keys is immediately reported to the administrator.  | X                 |     |     |   |
| 6-005.02E Keys must be inventoried and logged once per shift.  | X                 |     |     | Keys are inventoried each shift at shift change.  |
| 6-005.03 Restraint equipment is used only as a precaution against escape during transfer or as prevention against inmate self-injury, injury to others or damage to property. Restraint equipment is applied only for the time absolutely necessary. The use of restraint equipment, other than for routine use during transfer, is approved by the supervisor on-duty and must be documented in report. Restraint equipment shall be inventoried at regular and routine ongoing intervals.  | X                 |     |     |   |
| 6-005.04 The facility shall have a tool control system, which includes the following provisions: All facility owned tools and other potentially dangerous equipment are securely stored in a locked area or outside the security perimeter. There is an accounting system to record the issuance and return of all facility owned tools and equipment. Facility employees carefully monitor the use of tools and equipment by maintenance and repair workers within the security perimeter to ensure none are left unattended, lost, or forgotten. Tools and equipment are used by inmates within security perimeter only under the direct supervision of facility employees. The loss or misplacement of tools or equipment is promptly reported to the facility administrator. | X                 |     |     | There are no tools maintained inside the secure jail perimeter. Any tools that enter the facility are inventoried in and out. |
| 6-006 The jail's policies and procedures for pat searches, strip searches, and body cavity searches are consistent with Standards 6-006.01 through 6-006.04C4.   | X                 |     |     | Pat and body cavity search policies are consistent with these requirements.   |
| 6-006.05 The facility has a facility search plan for the control of contraband which provides for unannounced and irregularly timed searches of cells, dayrooms and activity, work or other areas accessible to inmates.   | X                 |     |     |   |
