CHAPTER 1 – STANDARDS FOR JAIL FACILITIES
1-0010	The jail administrator has developed and implemented written policies and procedures covering all aspects of Nebraska Minimum Standards.	X			The SOP manual was revised and placed into service in 2003, and meets the requirements of these standards.
CHAPTER 2 – PERSONNEL
2-002	The facility has an organized training program that is planned and coordinated by a designated employee. Training is based on, and consistent with, the facility's written policies and procedures.	X			The Jail Supervisor manages the training and staff development program.
2-003	The facility administrator and employees who work in excess of 200 hours annually and are responsible for the security and supervision of inmates meet the following training requirements:	X			New employee orientation has been completed on the newly hired employees.
2-003.01A	Inmate supervision, inmate security, inmate management and inmate rules, regulations and enforcement procedures;	X
2.003.01B	Emergency procedures including fire evacuation;	X
2-003.01C	Inmate admission, orientation, classification and release procedures;	X
2-003.01D	Inmate mail, telephone, visiting, exercise, recreation, and library services;	X
2-003.01E	Food service, inmate hygiene and laundry, facility sanitation and maintenance;	X
2-003.01F	Inmate work release, educational release, religious and counseling programs;	X
2-003.01G	Inmate medical and mental health services;	X
2-003.02	Required staff have received a minimum of eighty (80) hours of initial training provided by the Nebraska Law Enforcement Training Center or an equivalent curriculum approved by the Board.	X			This facility utilizes the Scottsbluff County initial training.
2-003.04	Newly appointed facility administrators and employees have completed the initial training within the first year of employment.	X			Three new staff members have been hired that will require initial training.
2-003.06	Any facility administrator or employee who has not been employed in a corrections or detention setting for more than two years shall have their prior initial training completion honored, but they must complete a refresher course approved by the Board. Any facility administrator or employee who has not been employed in a corrections or detention setting for more than ten years shall complete the initial training requirements anew.	X
2-003.07	After the first year of employment, the administrator and employees have received a minimum of 18 hours of yearly in-service training.	X			This includes PPCT, CPR, emergency procedures review and Jail Bulletins. These hours are calculated from inspection to inspection.

2-003.09	All employees have successfully completed basic Red Cross First-Aid training or it's equivalent and training in cardio-pulmonary resuscitation during the first 12 months of employment. Certification or training in these areas is kept current.	X			All staff recertified on 2/12/15.
2-003.10	All facility employees authorized to use firearms have received training and are qualified in their use on at least an annual basis.			X	Deputies carry and certify in the use of firearms but do not work in the jail.
2-003.11	All facility employees authorized to use chemical agents, other weapons, or mechanical restraints have received training in their handling and use.			X	Jail officers do not use any type of weapons.
2-003.12	All facility employees have received training in the performance of the facility's written emergency plans and in the use of emergency equipment on at least an annual basis.	X			Training records were found to be detailed, complete and readily accessible for the inspection.
2-003.13	The facility maintains a complete and current record of all training received for each facility employee. Copies of any certificates issued are also maintained.	X
2-004.01	New employees meet the following requirements:	X
2-004.01A	A citizen of the United States;	X
2-004.01B	At least nineteen (19) years of age or older;	X
2-004.01C	Free of any convictions of crimes punishable by imprisonment in a state or federal penitentiary for a term of 1 year or more from which a pardon has not been received. At the time of employment, new employees are fingerprinted and their fingerprint cards are promptly submitted to the Nebraska State Patrol for a criminal history search;	X
2-004.01D	Graduated from high school or possess a certificate, which certifies an educational development of at least a high school graduation level.	X
2-004.02	Around-the-clock supervision of inmates by trained facility employees is provided.	X			Two officers are assigned to each shift from 0800 to 0200 and one officer is assigned to the 0200 to 0800 shift.
2-004.02A	Female employees provide around-the-clock supervision of all female inmates housed in the jail.	X			Female detainees are not currently being housed in the facility.
2-004.02B	The facility administrator insures that inmates are viewed personally by facility employees often enough to maintain their safekeeping, but in no event less than one time per hour and document it.	X
2-004.02C	Where audio or visual electronic surveillance is used, it should be located primarily in hallways, elevators, corridors, or at entrance and exit points of the security perimeter. Electronic surveillance shall not substitute for periodic personal observations by facility employees, as required in paragraph 004.02B.	X
2-004.02D	Where electronic surveillance does not provide adequate, continuous coverage, facility employees are	X			Staff is stationed on the jail level and the office/booking area is

2-005 All facility employees maintain a professional demeanor in their contacts with inmates and the public.	X			All staff were found to be very professional and well trained.
CHAPTER 3 - RECORDS AND STATISTICS	X			The facility uses a combination of computer records and hard documents to collect and maintain the required data.
3-001 The facility utilizes a computerized Jail Management System. The jail maintains accurate and up-to-date records and statistics as required by 3-002.
3-002.01 Admission and release documentation shall be completed for each inmate. Computerized documentation shall be submitted to the Jail Standards Division according to Crime Commission specifications.	X			The admission and release of detainees is documented using the JAMIN/VINE system.
3-002.02 An itemized list of all property and money is completed for each inmate on admission.	X			Property and money is inventoried with documentation maintained in the inmate files.
3-002.02A An itemized account of every debit and credit for every inmate is maintained.	X			An account sheet is maintained for each inmate.
3-002.02B Every person depositing money in an inmate's account shall sign for and receive a receipt for such deposits.	X			All parties receive a receipt.
3-002.02C The inmate's signature is obtained for all withdrawals of money from their account.	X
3-002.03 A medical and mental health screening form is completed for each inmate upon admission. Accurate records of further health appraisal and medical attention received are kept.	X
3-002.04 Proper records of disciplinary actions, grievance decisions and incidents are maintained.	X
3-002.05 A telephone log of initial calls upon admission is maintained.	X			Initial calls are logged on the property form.
3-002.06 A visitor's register containing the date, the name of each visitor, and name of each inmate to be visited is maintained.	X			Visitors register at the visitation station.
3-002.07 Accurate summary records are maintained of all food service.	X
3-002.08 In detention facilities, diagnostic, criminal history or other information used in classification is maintained for each inmate.	X
3-003 Inmates have access to accurate summary information kept in their personal records. Guidelines for disclosure of jail records are in accordance with the Nebraska Security, Privacy, and Dissemination of Criminal History Information Act of 1978.	X
3-004 The jail administrator keeps official correspondence between the jail and personnel of the Board for a period of at least 1 year.	X
3-005 All records containing information required by the Standards are kept for at least 5 years.	X			Documentation of the above transactions are maintained in the inmate file folders and on computer.

CHAPTER 4 - ADMISSION AND RELEASE	X			To document this, jail staff requires a probable cause affidavit, custody authorization form, fingerprints photographs and warrant checks.
4-002.01 Upon admission, the booking officer ascertains the identity of the inmate and the identity of the arresting officer and verifies the legality of the admission. Inmate photographs are taken for identification purposes.
4-002.01A The arresting officer is required to remain present during the admissions process until all pertinent information is recorded and the booking officer accepts custody of the inmate.	X
4-002.01B Persons who are unconscious, seriously injured or those persons who appear to present a substantial risk of harm to another person or themselves within the near future are not admitted to the jail unless examined and approved for admission by a medical authority or licensed mental health authority.	X
4-002.02 An admission form is completed by trained jail employees on every inmate admitted.	X			Bookings, including medical screenings are recorded on DVD.
4-002.03 In accordance with Chapter 6-006, all inmates are searched upon admission.	X
4-002.04 Each inmate's property and money that is not allowed into the jail is inventoried and stored until it is returned.	X
4-002.04A,B Inmates verify the inventory list with their signature. If the inmate's signature is not obtained, it is witnessed and signed by a second person with reasons noted.	X			All property and financial documentation is located in the inmate files.
4-002.04D Newly admitted inmates are permitted to retain their prescription eyeglasses except where removal is necessary to protect the inmate or others from harm.	X
4-002.05,A,B Newly admitted inmates are permitted to complete at least 2 local or collect long distance phone calls. One call is allowed to his/her legal representative during the admission process and another is allowed to his/her family or other party. A record is kept of the calls.	X			Initial calls are logged on the facility property inventory sheet and maintained in the inmate's file.
4-002.06 As soon as possible, but definitely within 24 hours, newly admitted inmates shower or bathe.	X			Showers are available on the housing units.
4-002.07 Inmates are screened and observed by trained jail employees upon admission to determine if immediate medical or mental health attention is required.	X			Inmates sign a medical release and consent form.
4-002.08 Newly admitted inmates are made aware of the jail rules, procedures, programs and the rights to which they are entitled.	X			Inmates are provided with an inmate handbook.
4-003.01 The releasing officer verifies the identity of the inmates to be released and the authority of the release.	X
4-003.02 Upon release, the inmate's personal property is returned. The inmate signs a receipt for the property or a second person verifies the transaction with his signature and reasons noted. A copy of the receipt is given to the inmate at the time of the release.	X			Property documentation is maintained in the inmate files.

6-002.02D	No inmate is placed in disciplinary isolation for more than 15 consecutive days or more than 30 days out of any 45 day period, except in case of violence or attempted violence committed against another person or property.			X
6-002.03	Inmates participating in work programs, except those on temporary release status, are supervised in keeping with their custody classification while outside the secure perimeter of the facility.	X
6-003.01	All perimeter security doors are kept locked at all times, except when used for supervised entrance or exit.	X
6-003.02	All security equipment is inspected regularly.	X
6-003.02A	Employees inspect cells, cell doors, bars, windows, and doors leading into and out of housing areas daily to insure that all are in proper and safe working order.	X
6-003.02B	Prior to assignment of an inmate to a housing unit, the jail administrator or proper employee insures that the unit is properly equipped and that the required equipment is in useable condition.	X			The jail was found to be maintained in very good condition.
6-003.03	The jail administrator and all employees maintain proper levels of supervision. Employees take prompt action whenever any problems or disturbance arises.	X
6-003.03A	No employee strikes or lays hands on inmates except when it is necessary to prevent escape, injury to person or property, quell a disturbance, or in other execution of their duties.	X			Use of force policies are found in section C-300 of the facility's SOP manual.
6-003.03B	When inmates engage in a fight, employees separate the inmates at once, and restore order. Such incidents are documented and forwarded to the administrator for possible disciplinary action or further investigation.	X
6-004	The jail has proper policies and procedures for handling of emergency situations.	X			Emergency procedures are covered under jail policy and procedures sections C900-C990.
6-004.01	Emergency procedures and orders are made available to all employees. Such procedures are reviewed and updated periodically.	X
6-004.02	All employees are trained in the execution of emergency procedures.	X
6-004.03	The jail complies with the life safety codes established by the State Fire Marshal. Documentation of compliance is maintained by the jail administrator.	X			The facility was inspected and approved by the State Fire Marshal's office on 4/20/15.
6-005	The administrator insures the proper supervision of the jail arsenal, firearms, tools, restraint equipment and keys.	X
6-005.01	The jail arsenal is maintained in accordance with Standard 6-005.01A through 005.01D.			X	Firearms are stored outside of the security perimeter.
6-005.02	All jail keys not issued to employees are stored in a secure depository. Keys are issued from a central control area.	X			Keys are secured according to section C-600 of the facility's policy and procedure manual.
6-005.02A	All keys are labeled to correspond with their respective	X locks. The identifying labels, the number of keys available for each lock, and the location of the locks are properly recorded. The issuance of keys to employees is documented.

6-005.02B Keys not issued to employees are stored in a manner that permits easy determination of the presence or absence of keys.	X
6-005.02C Fire and other emergency keys are readily accessible to the central control area to the designated employees on duty.	X
6-005.02D The loss or misplacement of jail keys is immediately reported to the administrator.	X
6-005.02E Keys must be inventoried and logged once per shift.	X			Keys are inventoried once per shift and recorded on daily security check log.
6-005.03 Restraint equipment is used only as a precaution against escape during transfer or as prevention against inmate self-injury, injury to others or damage to property. Restraint equipment is applied only for the time absolutely necessary. The use of restraint equipment, other than for routine use during transfer, is approved by the supervisor on-duty and must be documented in report. Restraint equipment shall be inventoried at regular and routine ongoing intervals.	X			Restraints are inventoried once per shift and logged.
6-005.04 The facility shall have a tool control system, which includes the following provisions: All facility owned tools and other potentially dangerous equipment are securely stored in a locked area or outside the security perimeter. There is an accounting system to record the issuance and return of all facility owned tools and equipment. Facility employees carefully monitor the use of tools and equipment by maintenance and repair workers within the security perimeter to ensure none are left unattended, lost, or forgotten. Tools and equipment are used by inmates within security perimeter only under the direct supervision of facility employees. The loss or misplacement of tools or equipment is promptly reported to the facility administrator.	X			Facility policy is that staff escort all contractors and maintenance.
6-006 The jail's policies and procedures for pat searches, strip searches, and body cavity searches are consistent with Standards 6-006.01 through 6-006.04C4.	X			Pat and body cavity search policies meet the requirements of these standards.
6-006.05 The facility has a facility search plan for the control of contraband which provides for unannounced and irregularly timed searches of cells, dayrooms and activity, work or other areas accessible to inmates.	X

CHAPTER 9 - MAIL, VISITING & TELEPHONE SERVICE
9-002.01	The length, source, or volume of mail an inmate may send or receive at his/her own expense, shall not be limited, except where there is clear and convincing evidence to justify the limitation for reasons of public safety, facility order, or security. Any restriction of mail will be documented.	X			All incoming mail is opened in the inmate's presence and is documented.
9-002.02	Inmates are allowed to send or receive mail from any persons or organizations, except where there is clear and convincing evidence that justifies a restriction.	X
9-002.03-002.03C	Inmates are allowed to send sealed, confidential mail to the following: their legal counsel, courts, elected officials, members of the confining authority, the State Ombudsman, and the Board. Incoming confidential mail from these persons or organizations is opened only in the presence of the inmate recipient. Confidential mail is not read. Delivery of confidential mail shall be documented. It may be inspected for contraband, money, etc.	X
9-002.04A	Cash, checks or money orders are removed from incoming mail and promptly credited to the inmate's account. Checks or money order received in incoming mail may be cashed and credited to the inmate's account.	X			Funds received in the mail are added to inmate accounts.
9-002.04B	If contraband is discovered in either incoming or outgoing mail, it is removed, with that action and disposition being properly documented.	X
9-002.04C	No disciplinary action is taken against an inmate because of the contents of his incoming mail unless it can be proven that he had prior knowledge of the contents.	X
9-002.05	Incoming or outgoing non-confidential mail may be perused to assure that a particular item or correspondence does not threaten the safety and security of the jail facility, any public official, any other person, or is being used in the furtherance of illegal activities.	X
9-002.05A	Objectionable portions of incoming or outgoing mail is not blacked out, removed, or otherwise changed. Correspondence is delivered unaltered or totally rejected.	X
9-002.05B	Rejected correspondence is returned to the sender or placed with the inmate's personal property. The sender is notified as to the reasons for the rejection and the action properly documented.	X			Rejected correspondence is added to the inmate's property that they receive at discharge.
9-002.06	Indigent inmates receive sufficient materials and postage for a reasonable amount of correspondence.	X			Indigent inmates receive materials for 2 letters per week.
9-002.07	Mail is delivered within twenty-four hours, excluding weekends and holidays.	X

9-003.01A	Clergy providing religious counseling, physicians, probation/parole officers, and mental health and addiction therapists are allowed to visit at any reasonable time for any reasonable length of time. Visits between inmates and visitors of the types identified herein are contact visits unless the inmate or visitor indicate otherwise or unless the jail administrator has reasonable grounds to believe a contact visit would present a threat to jail security. If a contact visit is denied on the basis of a threat to jail security, the reason is documented.	X
9-003.01B	Attorneys or their legal assistants are allowed to visit their clients at any reasonable time for any reasonable length of time. However, in the event of an emergency, then they are allowed to visit their clients at any time. Unless otherwise indicated by the inmate or the visitor, all attorney-client visits are contact visits.	X
9-003.01C	Contact visits between inmates and their attorneys or the attorneys' legal assistants, clergy, physicians, probation/parole officers, mental health and addition therapists are in a private area or room so as to allow for confidential communication among up to 4 people with adequate writing space. No physical barriers such as wire mesh, glazed barriers, or other physical obstructions are placed between inmates and any of the above specified visitors during contact visits. Such visits are not monitored, except that employees may visually observe the visitation through glazed observation panels or by means of closed circuit television as necessary to maintain appropriate levels of security.	X		The secure side of the visiting area or the indoor exercise room is used for professional visitation.
9-003.01D	In all holding facilities, inmates are allowed personal visits at the discretion of the jail administrator.			X
9-003.02	Each inmate is allowed at least 2 personal visits per week. (Type III jails).	X
9-003.02A	No restrictions are placed on who may visit an inmate except that any person other than the inmate's spouse who is under the age of 18 may be denied visitation unless accompanied by their parent or guardian and any person who the jail administrator has reasonable grounds to believe presents a threat to jail security or order may be denied visitation.	X		The facility uses secure, non-contact visitation booths.
9-003.02B	Inmates are allowed at least 2 hours of visiting time each week in 2 or more visits. Visits are not limited to less than ½ hour.	X
9-003.02C	Enough hours are set aside weekly to fulfill the visiting requirements of all inmates housed in the jail.	X
