CHAPTER 4 - ADMISSION AND RELEASE
4-002.01	Upon admission, the booking officer ascertains the identity of the inmate and the identity of the arresting officer and verifies the legality of the admission. Inmate photographs are taken for identification purposes.	X			Arresting officers complete a pre-booking form and jail officers continue the identification process with AFIS, digital photographs and NCIC/NCIS.
4-002.01A	The arresting officer is required to remain present during the admissions process until all pertinent information is recorded and the booking officer accepts custody of the inmate.	X
4-002.01B	Persons who are unconscious, seriously injured or those persons who appear to present a substantial risk of harm to another person or themselves within the near future are not admitted to the jail unless examined and approved for admission by a medical authority or licensed mental health authority.	X			Detainees are screened during admission and when necessary are examined by facility medical staff or referred to a hospital for fitness for confinement determinations.
4-002.02	An admission form is completed by trained jail employees on every inmate admitted.	X			Completed hard document admission forms are maintained in the inmate files.
4-002.03	In accordance with Chapter 6-006, all inmates are searched upon admission.	X			Initial searches are conducted in the pre booking area.
4-002.04	Each inmate's property and money that is not allowed into the jail is inventoried and stored until it is returned.	X			Excess property is placed in property storage.
4-002.04A,B	Inmates verify the inventory list with their signature. If the inmate's signature is not obtained, it is witnessed and signed by a second person with reasons noted.	X			Signed inmate property documentation is maintained in the inmate files.
4-002.04D	Newly admitted inmates are permitted to retain their prescription eyeglasses except where removal is necessary to protect the inmate or others from harm.
4-002.05,A,B	Newly admitted inmates are permitted to complete at least 2 local or collect long distance phone calls. One call is allowed to his/her legal representative during the admission process and another is allowed to his/her family or other party. A record is kept of the calls.	X			Inmate use a PIN number to access calls at booking. Those calls are electronically logged.
4-002.06	As soon as possible, but definitely within 24 hours, newly admitted inmates shower or bathe.	X			All inmates are required to shower unless they will post bond from the intake and release area.
4-002.07	Inmates are screened and observed by trained jail employees upon admission to determine if immediate medical or mental health attention is required.	X
4-002.08	Newly admitted inmates are made aware of the jail rules, procedures, programs and the rights to which they are entitled.	X			Inmate handbooks are provided during the intake procedure.
4-003.01	The releasing officer verifies the identity of the inmates to be released and the authority of the release.	X
4-003.02	Upon release, the inmate's personal property is returned. The inmate signs a receipt for the property or a second person verifies the transaction with his signature and reasons noted. A copy of the receipt is given to the inmate at the time of the release.	X			Property documentation is located in the inmate files.

CHAPTER 5 - INMATE CLASSIFICATION AND ASSIGNMENT	X			The facility assigns custody status and housing assignments based on policies and procedures requiring an objective inmate classification assessment.
5-002 A classification committee, board, or officer is designated. The classification process is initiated as soon as practical, not exceeding 15 consecutive days after admission (Type III jails).
5-002.01 The classification committee, board, or officer conducts interviews and gathers sufficient information to determine the inmates' appropriate custody categories, housing assignments, and eligibility or interest for available jail programs or activities.	X			A Sgt. establishes initial classification and housing assignments. A Lt. manages the process and would evaluate any appeal.
5-002.02 The classification committee, board, or officer periodically reviews each inmate's custody status, housing assignment, or assignment to any programs or activities.	X
5-002.03 The basis and results of classification decisions shall be documented.	X			Housing assignments are also reviewed and documented.
5-002.04 There shall be a procedure for inmates to appeal classification decisions.	X			A Lt. manages classification and would evaluate any appeal.
5-003.01A Females are housed separately from and out of sight of males.	X
5-003.01B Persons under the age of 14 are not admitted to the jail except upon order of a judge; inmates under the age of sixteen are housed separately from and out of sight of inmates 16 or over.			X	Juveniles are housed at the Lancaster County Youth Services facility.
5-003.01C Inmates who are intoxicated or under the influence of a controlled substance are housed separately from the general population.	X			Several holding cells are available for short term housing of intoxicated detainees.
CHAPTER 6 - SECURITY AND CONTROL	X			Facility does a minimum of two counts per shift.
6-002.01 An official count is taken and recorded 4 times daily, 2 counts are taken between 2400 and 1200 hours and 2 are taken between 1200 and 2400 hours with no more than a six (6) hour interval between counts.
6-002.02 The assignment of inmates to safety cells, disciplinary isolation, or administrative segregation shall be approved by the facility administrator or administrator designee. If an inmate is placed in isolation, the following general conditions apply.	X
6-002.02A Isolated inmates are not deprived of normal jail clothing, except as is necessary for their protection.	X			LMHPs are on site seven days per week to manage any mental health issues.
6-002.02B The facility administrator or administrator designee shall review the classification status of inmates in safety cells at least every twenty-four (24) hours.	X
6-002.02C The facility administrator shall review the classification status of inmates in administrative segregation at least every thirty (30) days.	X			This is conducted and documented by the classification officers.

		In	Out	N/A
6-002.02D	No inmate is placed in disciplinary isolation for more than 15 consecutive days or more than 30 days out of any 45 day period, except in case of violence or attempted violence committed against another person or property.	X
6-002.03	Inmates participating in work programs, except those on temporary release status, are supervised in keeping with their custody classification while outside the secure perimeter of the facility.	X		Inmates work around the facility and are screened to confirm minimum security status.
6-003.01	All perimeter security doors are kept locked at all times, except when used for supervised entrance or exit.	X		Perimeter doors are electronically controlled by staff in master control.
6-003.02	All security equipment is inspected regularly.	X
6-003.02A	Employees inspect cells, cell doors, bars, windows, and doors leading into and out of housing areas daily to insure that all are in proper and safe working order.	X		Cells are inspected at shift change and during cell searches.
6-003.02B	Prior to assignment of an inmate to a housing unit, the jail administrator or proper employee insures that the unit is properly equipped and that the required equipment is in useable condition.	X
6-003.03	The jail administrator and all employees maintain proper levels of supervision. Employees take prompt action whenever any problems or disturbance arises.	X
6-003.03A	No employee strikes or lays hands on inmates except when it is necessary to prevent escape, injury to person or property, quell a disturbance, or in other execution of their duties.	X		Use of force policies are specified in the facility's SOP manual section 6.11. Revisions are planned.
6-003.03B	When inmates engage in a fight, employees separate the inmates at once, and restore order. Such incidents are documented and forwarded to the administrator for possible disciplinary action or further investigation.	X
6-004	The jail has proper policies and procedures for handling of emergency situations.	X		A section 14.1-14.9 of the facility's SOP covers emergencies.
6-004.01	Emergency procedures and orders are made available to all employees. Such procedures are reviewed and updated periodically.	X
6-004.02	All employees are trained in the execution of emergency procedures.	X		Employees receive training annually.
6-004.03	The jail complies with the life safety codes established by the State Fire Marshal. Documentation of compliance is maintained by the jail administrator.	X		Inspected by designated authority on 8/27/15 and found to comply with all life safety codes.
6-005	The administrator insures the proper supervision of the jail arsenal, firearms, tools, restraint equipment and keys.	X
6-005.01	The jail arsenal is maintained in accordance with Standard 6-005.01A through 005.01D.			X No firearms are stored inside the facility.
6-005.02	All jail keys not issued to employees are stored in a secure depository. Keys are issued from a central control area.	X		The facility utilizes the "Key Watcher" system and proximity readers for doors not electronically controlled by master control.

Nebraska Jail Standards Adult Facility Inspection Report

Standard		Compliance Status			Comments
		In	Out	N/A
6-005.02A	All keys are labeled to correspond with their respective locks. The identifying labels, the number of keys available for each lock, and the location of the locks are properly recorded. The issuance of keys to employees is documented.	X			While most locks are remote controlled, the key inventories, monitoring, issuance and identification is controlled and well documented.
6-005.02B	Keys not issued to employees are stored in a manner that permits easy determination of the presence or absence of keys.	X
6-005.02C	Fire and other emergency keys are readily accessible to the central control area to the designated employees on duty.	X			Emergency keys are labeled as such and maintained separately.
6-005.02D	The loss or misplacement of jail keys is immediately reported to the administrator.	X
6-005.02E	Keys must be inventoried and logged once per shift.	X
6-005.03	Restraint equipment is used only as a precaution against escape during transfer or as prevention against inmate self-injury, injury to others or damage to property. Restraint equipment is applied only for the time absolutely necessary. The use of restraint equipment, other than for routine use during transfer, is approved by the supervisor on-duty and must be documented in report. Restraint equipment shall be inventoried at regular and routine ongoing intervals.	X			Restraints inventories are performed each shift and are logged on appropriate logs.
6-005.04	The facility shall have a tool control system, which includes the following provisions: All facility owned tools and other potentially dangerous equipment are securely stored in a locked area or outside the security perimeter. There is an accounting system to record the issuance and return of all facility owned tools and equipment. Facility employees carefully monitor the use of tools and equipment by maintenance and repair workers within the security perimeter to ensure none are left unattended, lost, or forgotten. Tools and equipment are used by inmates within security perimeter only under the direct supervision of facility employees. The loss or misplacement of tools or equipment is promptly reported to the facility administrator.		X		Upon inspection it was discovered that a tool inventory had not been completed since June 2015. Up until that time tool inventories were performed on a regular basis.
6-006	The jail's policies and procedures for pat searches, strip searches, and body cavity searches are consistent with Standards 6-006.01 through 6-006.04C4.	X
6-006.05	The facility has a facility search plan for the control of contraband which provides for unannounced and irregularly timed searches of cells, dayrooms and activity, work or other areas accessible to inmates.	X			Facility has policy on searches and contraband control.
CHAPTER 7 - LIBRARY MATERIALS, EXERCISE AND RECREATION		X			The facility maintains a full library.
7-002	Library materials are available to all inmates housed in all detention facilities. (Type III jails)

13-003.03B4 Any staff witnesses;	X
13-003.03B5 An explanation of the event including who was involved, what transpired, and the time and location of occurrence;	X
13-003.03B6 Any physical evidence and its disposition;	X
13-003.03B7 Any immediate action taken, including the use of force;	X
13-003.03B8 Reporting staff member's signature, date and time of report.	X
13-003.03C A written statement of the charges is delivered to the inmate at least 24 hours before any hearing is held unless the inmate signs a waiver to have the hearing sooner. The administrator may designate an employee, an impartial person or panel to conduct a disciplinary hearing if he/she chooses not to do so. If the charges are sustained, a sanction is imposed appropriate for the offense.	X
13-003.03D The accused inmate has an opportunity to appear before and address the disciplinary person or panel conducting the hearing unless he/she voluntarily waives in writing the right to attend or the inmate's behavior justifies exclusion from the hearing. The accused inmate may be excluded during the testimony of a witness whose testimony must be given in confidence. Reasons for the accused inmate's absence or exclusion is documented.	X
13-003.03E The disciplinary person or panel conducting the hearing may summon to testify any witnesses with relevant information of the incident. The accused inmate is allowed to call witnesses with relevant knowledge and present relevant documentary evidence in their own defense when permitting to do so will not be unduly hazardous to institutional safety or correctional goals. The disciplinary person or panel states its reasons in writing for refusing to hear a witness.	X			A sergeant handles the disciplinary process. Majors go to the DHO Sergeant and minors go to the shift Sergeants.
13-003.03F The accused inmate has an adequate opportunity to prepare a defense and, if requested, may be provided with a staff member or agency representative to assist him/her at a disciplinary hearing. A representative is appointed when it is apparent that an inmate is not capable of collecting and presenting evidence effectively	X on his or her own behalf.

13-003.03G	X			If the charges are sustained, such findings are based upon information obtained through the hearing process. The person or panel makes a written statement of fact findings setting forth the evidence relied upon and the reasons for the disciplinary sanctions imposed. The accused inmate is given a copy of the written statement which includes the basis for the decision and the disciplinary sanction, if any, to be imposed.
13-003.0H	X			The facility administrator or designee provides for review of all disciplinary hearings and dispositions to assure conformity with policy and regulations. Majors and minor matters are reviewed. Inmates can appeal the findings of major disciplinary hearings.
13-003.04	X			Inmates found guilty of a major violation of the jail facility's rules may be subject to one (1) or more of the following sanctions:
13-003.04A	X			Reprimand;
13-003.04B	X			Temporary or permanent loss of one (1) or more privileges;
13-003.04C	X			Restriction to his or her cell;
13-003.04D	X			Confinement to disciplinary segregation;
13-003.04E	X			Restitution for wanton or willful destruction to facility property from any funds to his/her credit;
13-003.04F	X			Reduction of good time credit, or
13-003.04G	X			Extra cleaning duties or work assignments for sentenced inmates.
13-004	X			In all jail facilities, a written policy and procedure shall address grievance procedures. This procedure shall be available to all inmates for the review and adjudication of grievances, consistent with the following principles:
13-004.01	X			Any inmate is permitted to report and file a grievance.
13-004.02	X			Grievances filed are transmitted without interference or delay to the facility administrator, designated employee or official charged with the authority to receive and investigate grievances. A sergeant is assigned to the grievance process.
13-004.03	X			An inmate reporting a grievance is not subject to any disciplinary sanction or adverse action as a result of the filing of a grievance.
13-004.04	X			Each grievance not obviously frivolous or trivial is promptly investigated. A summary report containing the results of the investigation and the recommendations is prepared for jail facility records and the concerned inmate or inmates.
13-004.05	X			The inmate or inmates filing the grievance receive a prompt response from the appropriate authority. The response indicates what disposition will be made on the recommendations received.
