				magazines received by inmates through the mail are sent directly from the publisher or a mail order business.
9-003.01	X			There are opportunities for inmate visitation with clergy, counselors, and legal representatives. Both non-contact and confidential, contact visitation is available.
9-003.01A	X			Clergy providing religious counseling, physicians, probation/parole officers, and mental health and addiction therapists are allowed to visit at any reasonable time for any reasonable length of time. Visits between inmates and visitors of the types identified herein are contact visits unless the inmate or visitor indicate otherwise or unless the jail administrator has reasonable grounds to believe a contact visit would present a threat to jail security. If a contact visit is denied on the basis of a threat to jail security, the reason is documented.
9-003.01B	X			Attorneys or their legal assistants are allowed to visit their clients at any reasonable time for any reasonable length of time. However, in the event of an emergency, then they are allowed to visit their clients at any time. Unless otherwise indicated by the inmate or the visitor, all attorney-client visits are contact visits.
9-003.01C	X			Contact visits between inmates and their attorneys or the attorneys' legal assistants, clergy, physicians, probation/parole officers, mental health and addition therapists are in a private area or room so as to allow for confidential communication among up to 4 people with adequate writing space. No physical barriers such as wire mesh, glazed barriers, or other physical obstructions are placed between inmates and any of the above specified visitors during contact visits. Such visits are not monitored, except that employees may visually observe the visitation through glazed observation panels or by means of closed circuit television as necessary to maintain appropriate levels of security. A confidential, contact visitation room is adjacent to intake for professionals.
9-003.01D			X	In all holding facilities, inmates are allowed personal visits at the discretion of the jail administrator.
9-003.02	X			Each inmate is allowed at least 2 personal visits per week. (Type III jails).
9-003.02A	X			No restrictions are placed on who may visit an inmate except that any person other than the inmate's spouse who is under the age of 18 may be denied visitation unless accompanied by their parent or guardian and any person who the jail administrator has reasonable grounds to believe presents a threat to jail security or order may be denied visitation. Five individual visitation booths are used for secure, non-contact visitation.
9-003.02B	X			Inmates are allowed at least 2 hours of visiting time each week in 2 or more visits. Visits are not limited to less than ½ hour.
9-003.02C	X			Enough hours are set aside weekly to fulfill the visiting requirements of all inmates housed in the jail.

13-002	All inmates are required to conduct themselves in a lawful and orderly manner.
13-002.02	Upon admission, the orientation process includes a listing of all prohibited acts, a range of possible sanctions, and the facility's disciplinary procedures. Upon request written rules shall be made available to each inmate in the language he or she speaks.	X			The facility provides an inmate handbook and also utilizes an orientation and rules and regulations video.
13-003	The facility has a clear and concise disciplinary procedure governing inmate conduct.	X
13-003.01A	Disciplinary actions are used to regulate the inmate's behavior within acceptable limits. Each disciplinary sanction imposed is proportionate to the seriousness of the inmate's misconduct.	X
13-003.01B	The behavior of the inmates is controlled in a completely impartial and consistent manner.	X
13-003.01C	Records of all disciplinary actions taken are kept;	X
13-003.01D	The commission, or suspected commission, of an offense in violation of existing state or federal statute by an inmate is referred to the proper law enforcement agency, along with all pertinent evidence; and	X
13-003.01E	Inmates charged with major rule infractions may be held in administrative segregation or cell restriction prior to a hearing to ensure the safety of staff, inmates or the facility. The status of inmates held in pre-hearing segregation is reviewed by the facility administrator or designated facility employee(s) within 24 hours. Pre-hearing segregation does not exceed 96 hours excluding weekends and holidays.	X
13-003.02A	Minor matters of discipline, where no threat to life, security or property exists may be handled informally by a designated facility employee(s). The facility administrator or his/her designee reviews reports and approves any sanctions applied for minor misconduct.	X
