9-003.01	There are opportunities for inmate visitation with clergy, counselors, and legal representatives.	X
9-003.01A	Clergy providing religious counseling, physicians, probation/parole officers, and mental health and addiction therapists are allowed to visit at any reasonable time for any reasonable length of time. Visits between inmates and visitors of the types identified herein are contact visits unless the inmate or visitor indicate otherwise or unless the jail administrator has reasonable grounds to believe a contact visit would present a threat to jail security. If a contact visit is denied on the basis of a threat to jail security, the reason is documented.	X
9-003.01B	Attorneys or their legal assistants are allowed to visit their clients at any reasonable time for any reasonable length of time. However, in the event of an emergency, then they are allowed to visit their clients at any time. Unless otherwise indicated by the inmate or the visitor, all attorney-client visits are contact visits.	X
9-003.01C	Contact visits between inmates and their attorneys or the attorneys' legal assistants, clergy, physicians, probation/parole officers, mental health and addition therapists are in a private area or room so as to allow for confidential communication among up to 4 people with adequate writing space. No physical barriers such as wire mesh, glazed barriers, or other physical obstructions are placed between inmates and any of the above specified visitors during contact visits. Such visits are not monitored, except that employees may visually observe the visitation through glazed observation panels or by means of closed circuit television as necessary to maintain appropriate levels of security.	X		An office or the jury room is used for confidential visitation with professionals.
9-003.01D	In all holding facilities, inmates are allowed personal visits at the discretion of the jail administrator.			X
9-003.02	Each inmate is allowed at least 2 personal visits per week. (Type III jails).	X
9-003.02A	No restrictions are placed on who may visit an inmate except that any person other than the inmate's spouse who is under the age of 18 may be denied visitation unless accompanied by their parent or guardian and any person who the jail administrator has reasonable grounds to believe presents a threat to jail security or order may be denied visitation.	X		Video visitation is used for detainee's personal visiting.
9-003.02B	Inmates are allowed at least 2 hours of visiting time each week in 2 or more visits. Visits are not limited to less than ½ hour.	X
9-003.02C	Enough hours are set aside weekly to fulfill the visiting requirements of all inmates housed in the jail.	X
9-003.03	All visitors are required to register their names and provide all other information required in the visitor's	X		Visitors are required to register in the lobby area prior to visit.

9-003.04 For non-professional visits, visitors may be required to submit to a pat search. If the visitor does not wish to submit to a search, the facility administrator may restrict the visit to a non-contact type.			X	Personal visits are no longer contact.
9-003.05 Inmates are allowed to accept from visitors only those items approved by the jail administrator.	X
9-004.01 Inmates are allowed to make a reasonable number of outgoing telephone calls to legal representatives or to maintain family and community ties.	X
9-004.02 Inmates shall be allowed to return verified emergency telephone calls within a reasonable amount of time.	X
9-004.03 Telephone calls to or from legal counsel shall be of reasonable lengths of time and are not monitored.	X
9-004.04 Telephone calls may be monitored and recorded if allowed by law. If calls are monitored or recorded, both parties shall be so notified.	X
9-004.05 Telephone calls other than those to or from legal counsel may be limited or revoked as a disciplinary measure.	X
9-004.06 The facility may require that any costs for telephone calls be borne by the inmate or the party called.	X			Toll call telephones are available in the housing units.
CHAPTER 10 - HEALTH SERVICES	X
10-001 All inmates are provided with a healthful environment and access to adequate medical care.
10-002.01 No person other than medical authority shall diagnose any illness or injury, give treatment, or prescribe medication, except that in emergencies a qualified person administers first-aid.	X			Local Physicians, Physician Assistants and Nurse Practitioners provide the delivery of detainee health care.
10-002.02 The jail administrator makes provisions for the daily collection and review of inmate medical complaints and to insure that each inmate is observed on a regular basis. If there are indications of illness or injury, the jail administrator insures that the proper medical attention is provided as soon as possible.	X			The jail administrator or designee reviews all medical requests daily.
10-002.03 All medication admitted into the jail is specifically approved by the jail administrator or a qualified medical employee.	X
10-002.03A Prescribed medicines are administered by the proper medical authority or by some member of the jail staff authorized to dispense medication.	X			The administration of prescription medication is well documented.
10-002.03B Medicines are dispensed with strict adherence to the instructions and directions given by the medical authority prescribing the medication.	X

CHAPTER 13 - INMATE BEHAVIOR, DISCIPLINE AND GRIEVANCE	X
13-002 All inmates are required to conduct themselves in a lawful and orderly manner.
13-002.02 Upon admission, the orientation process includes a listing of all prohibited acts, a range of possible sanctions, and the facility's disciplinary procedures. Upon request written rules shall be made available to each inmate in the language he or she speaks.	X			The facility's revised SOP manual will need to include these interpretation services when requested.
13-003 The facility has a clear and concise disciplinary procedure governing inmate conduct.	X			These are specified in sections E-110 and E-120 of the facility's SOP.
13-003.01A Disciplinary actions are used to regulate the inmate's behavior within acceptable limits. Each disciplinary sanction imposed is proportionate to the seriousness of the inmate's misconduct.	X
13-003.01B The behavior of the inmates is controlled in a completely impartial and consistent manner.	X
13-003.01C Records of all disciplinary actions taken are kept;	X
13-003.01D The commission, or suspected commission, of an offense in violation of existing state or federal statute by an inmate is referred to the proper law enforcement agency, along with all pertinent evidence; and	X
13-003.01E Inmates charged with major rule infractions may be held in administrative segregation or cell restriction prior to a hearing to ensure the safety of staff, inmates or the facility. The status of inmates held in pre-hearing segregation is reviewed by the facility administrator or designated facility employee(s) within 24 hours. Pre-hearing segregation does not exceed 96 hours excluding weekends and holidays.	X			Inmates who present major disciplinary issues are usually transferred.
13-003.02A Minor matters of discipline, where no threat to life, security or property exists may be handled informally by a designated facility employee(s). The facility administrator or his/her designee reviews reports and approves any sanctions applied for minor misconduct.	X
13-003.02B For minor violations, inmates are subject to:	X
13-003.01B1 Reprimands;	X
13-003.02B2 Temporary loss of one or more privileges;	X

13-003.03B2	A formal statement of charges;	X
13-003.03B3	Any unusual inmate behavior;	X
13-003.03B4	Any staff witnesses;	X
13-003.03B5	An explanation of the event including who was involved, what transpired, and the time and location of occurrence;	X
13-003.03B6	Any physical evidence and its disposition;	X
13-003.03B7	Any immediate action taken, including the use of force;	X
13-003.03B8	Reporting staff member's signature, date and time of report.	X
13-003.03C	A written statement of the charges is delivered to the inmate at least 24 hours before any hearing is held unless the inmate signs a waiver to have the hearing sooner. The administrator may designate an employee, an impartial person or panel to conduct a disciplinary hearing if he/she chooses not to do so. If the charges are sustained, a sanction is imposed appropriate for the offense.	X
13-003.03D	The accused inmate has an opportunity to appear before and address the disciplinary person or panel conducting the hearing unless he/she voluntarily waives in writing the right to attend or the inmate's behavior justifies exclusion from the hearing. The accused inmate may be excluded during the testimony of a witness whose testimony must be given in confidence. Reasons for the accused inmate's absence or exclusion is documented.	X
13-003.03E	The disciplinary person or panel conducting the hearing may summon to testify any witnesses with relevant information of the incident. The accused inmate is allowed to call witnesses with relevant knowledge and present relevant documentary evidence in their own defense when permitting to do so will not be unduly hazardous to institutional safety or correctional goals. The disciplinary person or panel states its reasons in writing for refusing to hear a witness.	X
13-003.03F	The accused inmate has an adequate opportunity to prepare a defense and, if requested, may be provided with a staff member or agency representative to assist him/her at a disciplinary hearing. A representative is appointed when it is apparent that an inmate is not capable of collecting and presenting evidence effectively on his or her own behalf.	X
13-003.03G	If the charges are sustained, such findings are based upon information obtained through the hearing process. The person or panel makes a written statement of fact findings setting forth the evidence relied upon and the reasons for the disciplinary sanctions imposed. The accused inmate is given a copy of the written statement	X

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

Policy, procedures and some training records were removed by the previous administration. The current administration is currently developing new policy and procedure.

Two staff members were below the 18 hours of in-service training required by standards. Notice was given during the inspection that if training was completed within the near future and supporting documentation was received full compliance would be recommended. No updates or documentation has been received at this time.
