6-002.02D	No inmate is placed in disciplinary isolation for more than 15 consecutive days or more than 30 days out of any 45 day period, except in case of violence or attempted violence committed against another person or property.	X
6-002.03	Inmates participating in work programs, except those on temporary release status, are supervised in keeping with their custody classification while outside the secure perimeter of the facility.	X			The facility coordinates an inmate work program for use at the county fairgrounds annually.
6-003.01	All perimeter security doors are kept locked at all times, except when used for supervised entrance or exit.	X			Perimeter doors are electronically controlled by staff in master control.
6-003.02	All security equipment is inspected regularly.	X
6-003.02A	Employees inspect cells, cell doors, bars, windows, and doors leading into and out of housing areas daily to insure that all are in proper and safe working order.	X			Hand held proximity readers are used by each staff member while on shift to record each cell check and rounds they conduct.
6-003.02B	Prior to assignment of an inmate to a housing unit, the jail administrator or proper employee insures that the unit is properly equipped and that the required equipment is in useable condition.	X			The jail was observed to be maintained in very good condition.
6-003.03	The jail administrator and all employees maintain proper levels of supervision. Employees take prompt action whenever any problems or disturbance arises.	X			Cell checks are audited daily and the Lieutenant reviews them quarterly.
6-003.03A	No employee strikes or lays hands on inmates except when it is necessary to prevent escape, injury to person or property, quell a disturbance, or in other execution of their duties.	X			Use of force policies are outlined in the facility's SOP manual sections J-4000 through 4080.
6-003.03B	When inmates engage in a fight, employees separate the inmates at once, and restore order. Such incidents are documented and forwarded to the administrator for possible disciplinary action or further investigation.	X
6-004	The jail has proper policies and procedures for handling of emergency situations.	X
6-004.01	Emergency procedures and orders are made available to all employees. Such procedures are reviewed and updated periodically.	X			This is part of the SOP that is available to staff on the in-house computers.
6-004.02	All employees are trained in the execution of emergency procedures.	X
6-004.03	The jail complies with the life safety codes established by the State Fire Marshal. Documentation of compliance is maintained by the jail administrator.	X			The facility was inspected and approved by the Papillion Fire Marshal on May 18, 2015.
6-005	The administrator insures the proper supervision of the jail arsenal, firearms, tools, restraint equipment and keys.	X
6-005.01	The jail arsenal is maintained in accordance with Standard 6-005.01A through 005.01D.			X	Duty weapons are stored in lockers outside the security perimeter.
6-005.02	All jail keys not issued to employees are stored in a secure depository. Keys are issued from a central control area.	X

6-005.02A	All keys are labeled to correspond with their respective locks. The identifying labels, the number of keys available for each lock, and the location of the locks are properly recorded. The issuance of keys to employees is documented.	X			Security doors are electronically controlled by staff assigned to master control minimizing the number of keys carried by floor officers.
6-005.02B	Keys not issued to employees are stored in a manner that permits easy determination of the presence or absence of keys.	X			Keys are issued with a biometric identification system that provides for continual accounting and inventories.
6-005.02C	Fire and other emergency keys are readily accessible to the central control area to the designated employees on duty.	X
6-005.02D	The loss or misplacement of jail keys is immediately reported to the administrator.	X
6-005.02E	Keys must be inventoried and logged once per shift.	X
6-005.03	Restraint equipment is used only as a precaution against escape during transfer or as prevention against inmate self-injury, injury to others or damage to property. Restraint equipment is applied only for the time absolutely necessary. The use of restraint equipment, other than for routine use during transfer, is approved by the supervisor on-duty and must be documented in report. Restraint equipment shall be inventoried at regular and routine ongoing intervals.	X
6-005.04	The facility shall have a tool control system, which includes the following provisions: All facility owned tools and other potentially dangerous equipment are securely stored in a locked area or outside the security perimeter. There is an accounting system to record the issuance and return of all facility owned tools and equipment. Facility employees carefully monitor the use of tools and equipment by maintenance and repair workers within the security perimeter to ensure none are left unattended, lost, or forgotten. Tools and equipment are used by inmates within security perimeter only under the direct supervision of facility employees. The loss or misplacement of tools or equipment is promptly reported to the facility administrator.	X
6-006	The jail's policies and procedures for pat searches, strip searches, and body cavity searches are consistent with Standards 6-006.01 through 6-006.04C4.	X
6-006.05	The facility has a facility search plan for the control of contraband which provides for unannounced and irregularly timed searches of cells, dayrooms and activity, work or other areas accessible to inmates.	X
CHAPTER 7 - LIBRARY MATERIALS, EXERCISE AND RECREATION		X			The facility has a library and a book cart to distribute reading material 7 days a week.

CHAPTER 9 - MAIL, VISITING & TELEPHONE SERVICE	X			These requirements are included in the facility's SOP manual and meet the specifications of these requirements.
9-002.01 The length, source, or volume of mail an inmate may send or receive at his/her own expense, shall not be limited, except where there is clear and convincing evidence to justify the limitation for reasons of public safety, facility order, or security. Any restriction of mail will be documented.	X
9-002.02 Inmates are allowed to send or receive mail from any persons or organizations, except where there is clear and convincing evidence that justifies a restriction.	X
9-002.03-002.03C Inmates are allowed to send sealed, confidential mail to the following: their legal counsel, courts, elected officials, members of the confining authority, the State Ombudsman, and the Board. Incoming confidential mail from these persons or organizations is opened only in the presence of the inmate recipient. Confidential mail is not read. Delivery of confidential mail shall be documented. It may be inspected for contraband, money, etc.	X
9-002.04A Cash, checks or money orders are removed from incoming mail and promptly credited to the inmate's account. Checks or money order received in incoming mail may be cashed and credited to the inmate's account.	X			Money received through the mail is added to the inmate's account.
9-002.04B If contraband is discovered in either incoming or outgoing mail, it is removed, with that action and disposition being properly documented.	X
9-002.04C No disciplinary action is taken against an inmate because of the contents of his incoming mail unless it can be proven that he had prior knowledge of the contents.	X
9-002.05 Incoming or outgoing non-confidential mail may be perused to assure that a particular item or correspondence does not threaten the safety and security of the jail facility, any public official, any other person, or is being used in the furtherance of illegal activities.	X
9-002.05A Objectionable portions of incoming or outgoing mail is not blacked out, removed, or otherwise changed. Correspondence is delivered unaltered or totally rejected.	X			Rejected correspondence is placed into detainee's property or returned to sender.
9-002.05B Rejected correspondence is returned to the sender or placed with the inmate's personal property. The sender is notified as to the reasons for the rejection and the action properly documented.	X
9-002.06 Indigent inmates receive sufficient materials and postage for a reasonable amount of correspondence.	X			Indigent detainees receive postage for 3 letters a week.

CHAPTER 13 - INMATE BEHAVIOR, DISCIPLINE AND GRIEVANCE		X
13-002	All inmates are required to conduct themselves in a lawful and orderly manner.
13-002.02	Upon admission, the orientation process includes a listing of all prohibited acts, a range of possible sanctions, and the facility's disciplinary procedures. Upon request written rules shall be made available to each inmate in the language he or she speaks.	X			This is covered in the detainee handbook. The rules and sanctions are also posted in each housing unit.
13-003	The facility has a clear and concise disciplinary procedure governing inmate conduct.	X
13-003.01A	Disciplinary actions are used to regulate the inmate's behavior within acceptable limits. Each disciplinary sanction imposed is proportionate to the seriousness of the inmate's misconduct.	X			Inmate disciplinary process is covered under section J-3910 of the facility's SOP manual and is consistent with the requirements of these standards. .
13-003.01B	The behavior of the inmates is controlled in a completely impartial and consistent manner.	X
13-003.01C	Records of all disciplinary actions taken are kept;	X
13-003.01D	The commission, or suspected commission, of an offense in violation of existing state or federal statute by an inmate is referred to the proper law enforcement agency, along with all pertinent evidence; and	X
13-003.01E	Inmates charged with major rule infractions may be held in administrative segregation or cell restriction prior to a hearing to ensure the safety of staff, inmates or the facility. The status of inmates held in pre-hearing segregation is reviewed by the facility administrator or designated facility employee(s) within 24 hours. Pre-hearing segregation does not exceed 96 hours excluding weekends and holidays.	X
13-003.02A	Minor matters of discipline, where no threat to life, security or property exists may be handled informally by a designated facility employee(s). The facility administrator or his/her designee reviews reports and approves any sanctions applied for minor misconduct.	X
13-003.02B	For minor violations, inmates are subject to:	X
13-003.01B1	Reprimands;	X
13-003.02B2	Temporary loss of one or more privileges;	X
